
Assistant Prepared Foods Manager

The ideal candidate would possess the following qualifications:

- Management experience in a high volume food production facility
- Ability to train and give consistent feedback to staff
- Commitment to quality control and product integrity
- Working knowledge and understanding of food service financials and food service software
- Experience in ordering and receiving product
- Ability to develop working par systems and cost control
- Some knowledge of natural foods and dietary needs
- Outstanding Customer Service skills
- Familiarity of Cooperative Principles

Job description and applications available at the Customer Service Desk or at: www.marquettefood.coop

Resumes and letters of intent will be accepted until position is filled.