#UPFarmTours2017

We are doing something new and fun for the 2017 Farm Tours—participants are invited to join in on our first ever UP Farm Tour Photo Contest! Anyone attending a farm tour can participate by posting their photos to Instagram, tagging the farm you are visiting, and using the hashtag #UPFarmTours2017. The winner of the photo contest will be selected by MFC staff and the winning photo will be used to promote next year's tours. The winning photographer will be credited and will also go home with a basket of local farm goods!

LOCAL FARM TOUR

Guide

Curious about where your food comes from and how it is raised?

For twelve years, the Marquette Food Co-op has been coordinating tours of local farms to offer everyone the opportunity to connect with local food. See for yourself where your food is grown and how it is produced.
