Blumenkaese

An alpine cheese covered with wildflowers from the meadows of Switzerland, this floral beauty isn't just pretty on the outside, it's packed with flavors of French onion soup and sweet carrots. The long list of flowers and herbs that decorate the rind include winter savory, dill, garlic, caraway, lovage, marjoram, mint, leek, chive, parsley, juniper berries, onion, marigolds, cornflower, roses, strawberry leaves. This unique cheese pairs beautifully with crisp white wines, fresh fruits, and crusty bread, making it an ideal choice for a charcuterie board or light appetizer.
