Tangy Ranch Slices

Radd Foods

Watch out, Cheese. Marquette's got a brand-new, RADDical option changing up the scene.

RADD Foods says "See ya" to dairy-free cheese with no flavor. RADD's hitting the shelves with totally tubular Tangy Ranch slices that are plant-based, nut-free, and soy-free. Try a slice. Or two. Maybe ten. We won't tell.

Boba Milk Tea

Jenji Pure

After making a splash in Taiwan, boba tea is now a massive phenomenon. Ranging from creamy milk bases to floral teas, boba tea melds many unique flavors together with the texture of chewy, sweet tapioca pearls. While tapioca boba struggles to stay bouncy and plump in canned drinks, Jenji devised a twist on the formula. Using coconut jelly boba, this iteration has less carbs and is shelf-stable, so you can have boba at home, on the go, any time, anywhere.

Roasted Salted Macadamia Nuts

Good Sam

Something must change. Earth's temperature rises each decade. The USDA Economic Research Service reports that food-at-home prices "were 5.0 percent higher in 2023 than in 2022." With growing economic and climate crises, GoodSAM seeks solutions.

Using a direct trade model, GoodSAM pays regenerative agriculture focused farmers directly for their work. By encouraging regenerative agriculture, better products can be made in a better world.

Magnesium + Ashwagandha

New Chapter

New Chapter doesn't do whole food supplements like other multivitamin shops. Using a patented fermentation process, they meld whole food ingredients with Saccharomyces yeast and select vitamins and minerals. This helps mimic food, making your body treat it more like a nutrient-dense snack.

New Chapter's Magnesium + Ashwagandha Tablets deliver a boost of magnesium mixed up with Ashwagandha, an herb best known for its calming effects. Thanks to fermentation, New Chapter reports that these tablets have "2.5x Better Absorption than the leading brand!"

LOCAL SPOTLIGHT

Learn more about the businesses that supply
your favorite local products to the MFC

Superior Culture admires the little universes fermentation creates. The company's kombucha, nano-brewed beers, Michigan ciders, meads, seltzers, fire shots—their whole suite of products embodies the best of fermentation. Their flavors always change, celebrating the best of their past, present, and future.

Alex Rowland, Superior Culture owner, also sees their business as a celebration of Marquette. "It's empowering to be around people who are like-minded," he writes, "and there's so much of that in Marquette. So many people are supportive of each other. People need this more than ever."
