Maple Pecan Granola Butter

Michele's Granola

As Michele's Granola expanded out of her kitchen in Maryland, so has its green initiatives. 100% of their bakery is Wind Power certified. 80% of their production materials are recycled or composted. 100% of their food waste is composted. There are more ways Michele's Granola gives back to the planet with its operations, like all of their upcycled cardboard, but we'd be here forever. All you need to know is that it's good granola made through good practices.

Peanut Butter Cookie Dough

Doughy

In seven or less ingredients, Doughy provides the best of plant-based cookie dough. This commitment comes from a love of stupendous sweets and a goal to support the Earth and the people on it. When you buy a pint of Peanut Butter Cookie Dough, a portion of the profit goes to ending food insecurity. And that cute pint packaging? Recyclable. Doughy goes the extra mile to make every piece of their product perfect.

Gheek Lip Balm

Pure Indian Foods

Soy & Scallion Noodles

Momofuku

Soy & Scallion brings star chef David Chang's cookbook recipes home without the prep time. Featuring a tangy soy sauce with sesame oil and scallions, these noodles can be cooked over the stove or in a microwave. Either way, they make an easy, delicious meal.

LOCAL SPOTLIGHT

Learn more about the businesses that supply
your favorite local products to the MFC

Superior Culture admires the little universes fermentation creates. The company's kombucha, nano-brewed beers, Michigan ciders, meads, seltzers, fire shots—their whole suite of products embodies the best of fermentation. Their flavors always change, celebrating the best of their past, present, and future.

Alex Rowland, Superior Culture owner, also sees their business as a celebration of Marquette. "It's empowering to be around people who are like-minded," he writes, "and there's so much of that in Marquette. So many people are supportive of each other. People need this more than ever."
