Double Cheddar Crackers Cheddies

Cheddies thinks regenerative. Agriculture can be better, bringing back its natural biodiversity, combatting climate change, and providing a healthier farm. Their cows graze on rich pastures, producing rich milk for the most savory cheese. Double all that, and you have a heck of a snack.

Gluten Free Blueberry Muffins Flax4Life

Flax4Life Muffins use the power of flaxseed to create baked goods that are both delicious and full of nutrients. Flaxseed stuffs every muffin with 6220mg of Omega 3's, 8g of fiber, and 10g of protein. You can even compost the packaging when you're done, too.

Art Woosah Outfitters

Woman-owned, Queer-owned, Michigan-made—Woosah displays the best of our state's diverse creative community. Their artwork often celebrates nature, depicting its magic, humor, and serenity.

Woosah's clothing, artwork, and carvings are handmade in Grand Rapids, released in small batches. Find a few of their select wares at the Co-op today!

Chai Bhakti

Bhakti's back and better than ever. Its signature ginger and black tea blend gives it an antioxidant-rich spiciness that made it a Marquette favorite.

Bhakti is a woman-owned, B Corp. business pushing for social justice and environmental change. Through their Gita Giving website, Bhakti provides grant money towards women's empowerment, community building, and accessible water and food for all.
