Steak Masala Diaspora

Diaspora Co. asks a simple question: "Is this the most delicious thing on the market?" Their answer? Spices with great flavor and a lively aroma. Through a deep cultural connection to South Asian farms, farmer pay that's over 3x Fairtrade price, and queer business practices, Diaspora Co. creates a Steak Masala that's loud, proud, and great on meat and vegetables.

Organic Herbal Coffee Wooden Spoon Herbs

Cordyceps and cacao; matcha and magnesium—Wooden Spoon Herbs founder Lauren Haynes sees a world of natural medicine all around her Appalachian home. With Wooden Spoon's Herbal Coffee, prebiotic roots and adaptogenic mushrooms create an energizing mix without the caffeine. Mix it with your morning to start your day feeling rejuvenated.

Polarized Sunglasses Peepers

Jeepers! Peepers Polarized Sunglasses aren't just lightweight readers, but they have UV400 Protection which blocks 99.9% of UVA/UVB rays. Peepers also makes their glasses sustainably, using enough solar power over the past 25 years that it's estimated to offset 4,043,636 lbs. of CO2 emissions.

Zhug Blank Slate Kitchens

Founded by New York Times-starred chef Alex Sorenson, Blank Slate creates delicious international sauces that may go under-spoken. Zhug, a condiment home in Yemen and the Middle East, has a pesto-y base with a spicy kick. It pairs great with falafel-filled flatbread.

CHEESE OF THE WEEK

St. Andre
 Triple Crème
 Cheese

You won't brie-lieve how supple and luscious this cheese is. Saint Andre Triple Crème Cheese uses cow's milk and heavy sweet cream to create a paste that is award-winningly soft.

With its butter-like texture, it makes a great spreading cheese on a fresh baguette or sourdough. Pair it with a pilsner or bubbly chardonnay for a decadent time.
