CHEESE OF THE WEEK

Raclette

Raclette is the pasteurized version of the world's best melting cheese. It has a milky, fruity flavor which intensifies when heated. Traditionally, a large piece of raclette is warmed over a fire until it becomes soft inside. Then you use a knife to scrape the gooey, melted cheese over boiled potatoes. You can make it at home by slicing the cheese and broiling it in a cast iron skillet or small baking dish in the oven.
