CHEESE OF THE WEEK

Cranberry Wensleydale is a hand-made Yorkshire cheese from milk drawn from cows grazing the sweet limestone pastures on surrounding farms in Upper Wensleydale, UK. The cheese is a fresh, young cheese taken at only three weeks old and mixed with cranberries. It has the sweet flavor of juicy cranberries with honeyed undertones, making it a wonderful dessert cheese when served on sweetened or ginger crackers. It's also great crumbled over a salad.

Pair with salad, desserts, Sauvignon Blanc, Pinot Noir, or a fruity ale. Excellent on fruity & nutty crackers like Raincoast crisps or Maine Crisps.
